WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Eugene Sayers, of Chestaut Street, Seriously Injured at Duryea by the Breaking of a Derrick Chain.

Eugene Sayres, the well known ma chinist, whose home is at 421 Chestnut street, was seriously hurt yesterday afternoon while at work in Duryea. He, with a number of fellow workmen, was lifting a heavy mass by means of a derrick. The chain broke and the block fell striking Mr. Sayres upon the head. Five cuts were inflicted each of which were to the skull bone. Mr. Sayres' condition is critical.

FUNERAL OF WILL CARSON.

The sad death of William Carson following so closely upon the death of his brother, Edward Carson, has awakened a great public sympathy with the respected family. The funeral of William took place yesterday afternoon from the parental residence on Washburn street. There was a large concourse of friends present. Rev. T. Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church, and D. Jones, of the First Congregational church, officiated. A sextette sang feveral hymns. The singers were: Elias Evans, William Phillips, David E. Hughes, Brownsen Joseph, Agnes Joseph and Margaret Phillips, all of the Plymouth church. The pall bearers were: Edward Davis, Harry Seymore, John Davis, David James, Griffith Griffiths and Robert Davis. Interment was made in Washburn street cemetery. Among the out-oftown people at the funeral were: Daniel Scurry, Mrs. John Scurry, of Carbondale; John R. Davis, Edwardsdale; Mr. Maxey, of Clifford; and Edward Davis, of Llewel-

MOTHER AND SON DEFENDANTS. The "block of blazes" is the flery appellation used in naming a certain building on Jackson street. On June 18 the block was the scene of an explosion between Mrs. Nicholas and Mrs. Ann Evans. Arrests resulted from the disturbance and last evening before Alderman John, Mrs. Evans appeared against the other woman. Mrs. Evans also caused the arrest of Frank, a 9 year old son of Mr. Nicholas. This boy, a mere babe in size, was charged with assault upon Mrs. Evans. Mrs. Nicholas' other son, Johnie, aged 13 years, was at the trial with a number of large cobble stones. These it was that Mrs. Evans hurled at and struck an infant child of Mrs. Nicholas. The alderman held mother and son under $200 bail. They were committed in default.

MRS. THOMAS DEAD.

Mre. Jane Thomas, who was stricken with paralysis last Monday evening. died at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at her home on South Hyde Park avenue. From the time of the attack until her death Mrs. Thomas was unconscious. The attending physicians marvelled at the remarkable vitality of the woman. In most cases the stroke would have immediately proved fatal. The deceased was born in Wales and was 63 years of age. She has resided on the West Side for many years. The surviving children are Mrs. Lizzie Price, and five sons, Edward, Parry, Price. Arthur and Daniel. As a member of Plymouth Congregational church Mrs. Thomas was known by her sincere christianity. The funeral services will be on Monday afternoon. The obsequies will be at the house for a brief time and afterward at the Plymouth Congregational church. Rev. Thomas Bell will be in charge. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

FELL INTO THE CELLAR.

Schroeder, of Seventh street, feil twelve feet yesterday morning while playing about the excavation made for the new No 16 school building on Chestnut street. The boy was badly injured and at present his condition is a matter of doubt. Dr. Hall, who was called, found a contusion of the hip and there may be internal injuries.

Closing Exercises at No. 11 School Yesterday Afternoon-Trouble in Polish Congregation May Be Averted.

The closing exercises at No. 11 school yesterday afternoon were of an interesting character. The pupils assembled in Miss Ella McTighe's room, in which a stage was erected, decorated with banks of ferns, roses, and daistes. The entertainment given reflected the painstaking care of the teachers. Prof. John E. O'Malley, principal of the school, addressed the pupils and then the exercises were begun. After a song by the pupils the cantata, "June voices," was rendered by the pupils of Miss Julia McGuigan and Miss Jennie Durkin.

The remainder of the programme was as follows: Recitation by Miss Anna McCoy; recitation by Henry Griffiths; solo by Miss Mary Opper; recitation by Miss Lodie Balley; a drama, entitled "Cinderella," by the pupils of Prof. O'Malley's room; and a closing song by the school. The pupils were instructed by their respective teachers and performed their parts in a creditable man-

STORM MAY BLOW OVER.

For over two weeks a tempest has been gathering in the Polish congregation, of which Rev. Richard A. Aust is the pastor, on account of his alleged refusal to grant to a large number of his parishloners an accounting of the finances. The indications now point to a subsidence of the trouble. The pastor is expected to restore harmony tomorrow.

DUNMORE.

The first annual convention of the Loyal Temperance legions of Lackawanna county will be held in Boyle's hall Friday evening, June 26, at which every Loyal Temperance legion in the county will be represented. Addresses will be delivered by the state president, C. Wesley Burns, of Philadelphia, and by the county superintendent, Mrs. Swartz, of Dunmore. Mr. Burns, who is now a student at Dickinson college. Carlisle, Pa., is very well known as an earnest temperance orator and advo-cate. Besides the addresses an excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music will be rendered by the different societies. Too much praise cannot be given the local society for its splendid work among the young people of this place.

There will be a game of alley ball this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Logan's ball alley, Exchange hotel. Patrick O'Boyle and Patrick Naughton will play James McDermott and Michael Miles. The stakes are $40 a side. This game promises to be as interesting as the one played a week ago on the same grounds as all the players are very skillful. Admission free.

Wall Street Review. New York, June 19.—The nominations and the adoption of the gold plank by the Republicans at St. Louis yesterday served to strengthen the market for se-curities. The news from London was also of an encouraging nature, it being stated by no less an authority than Lord Salisbury that the outlook for a settlement of the dispute over the Ven-ezuelan boundary line had improved. The report of trouble between British surveyors and Venezuelan troops was denied. The fact that there were no engagements of gold for shipment to Europe tomorrow added to the bullish feeling. London buying was quite a feature of the day, the foreigners having bought about 25,000 shares of various stocks, including St. Paul and Louisville and Nashville. The decisive victory of the gold men at St. Louis was mainly responsible for this buying While the market ruled firm through out, business was small, the sales footing up 173,369 shares. Commission houses, however, are anticipating an increase in trading at the stock exchange shortly as a result of the settlement of the money question, at least so far as the Republican party is concerned. and the heads of financial institutions as a rule heartily endorsed the action altogether there is a more confident feeling as to the future. The gains in prices ranged from ½ to ½ to ½ per cent. outside of Tobacco, which jumped from 65 to 68 on a report that dividends on the common will be resumed next month. Gossip had it that the dividend will be 2 and probably 3 per cent Among the standard issues St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville and Sugar were in the best demand. Speculation closed quiet and firm. Net changes show gains of 14@1% per cent. Tobacco, however, gained 2½ per cent.
